

OECD
Better Life
Initiative

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development

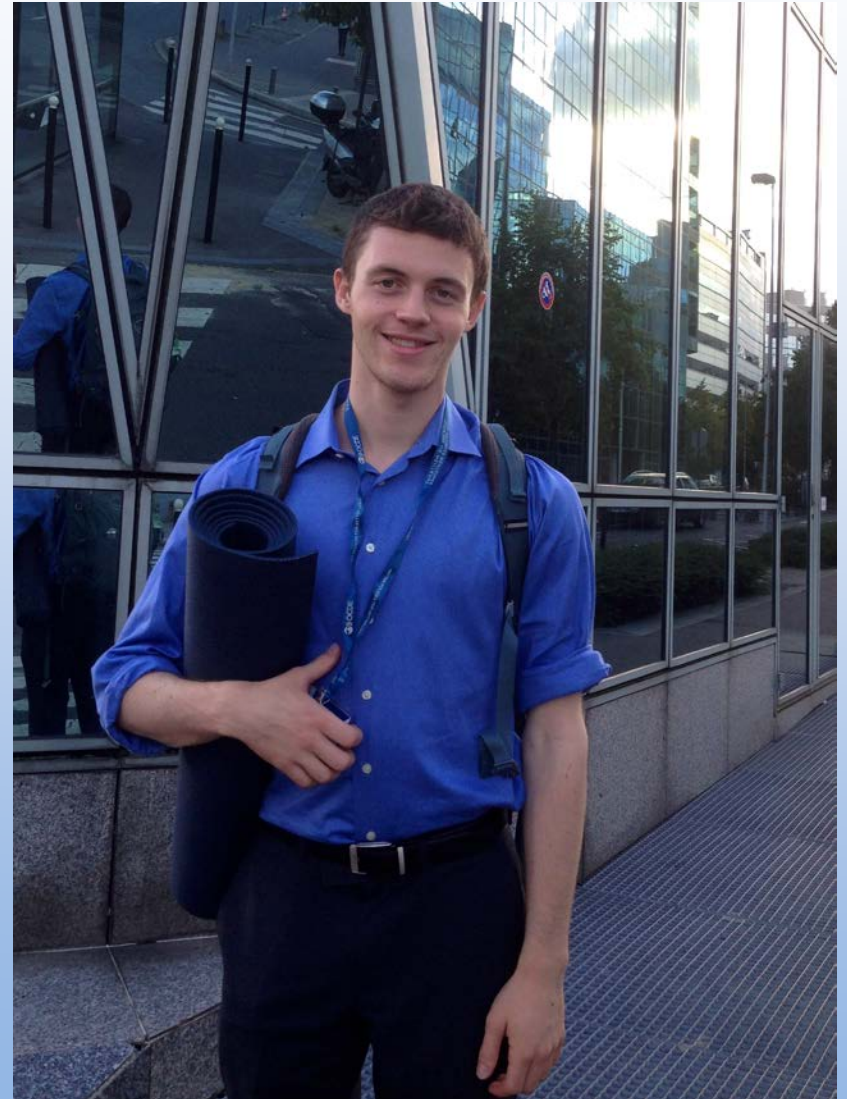

Paris, France

Jackson Salter, '17

The Work I Did

- Public Affairs and Communications Directorate
 - Publishing Division
 - Rights and Translation Team
 - Writing/Editorial Content Creation Team
- Promotional catalogues of OECD publications
- Editing, proofreading, writing

The “Delta” Building

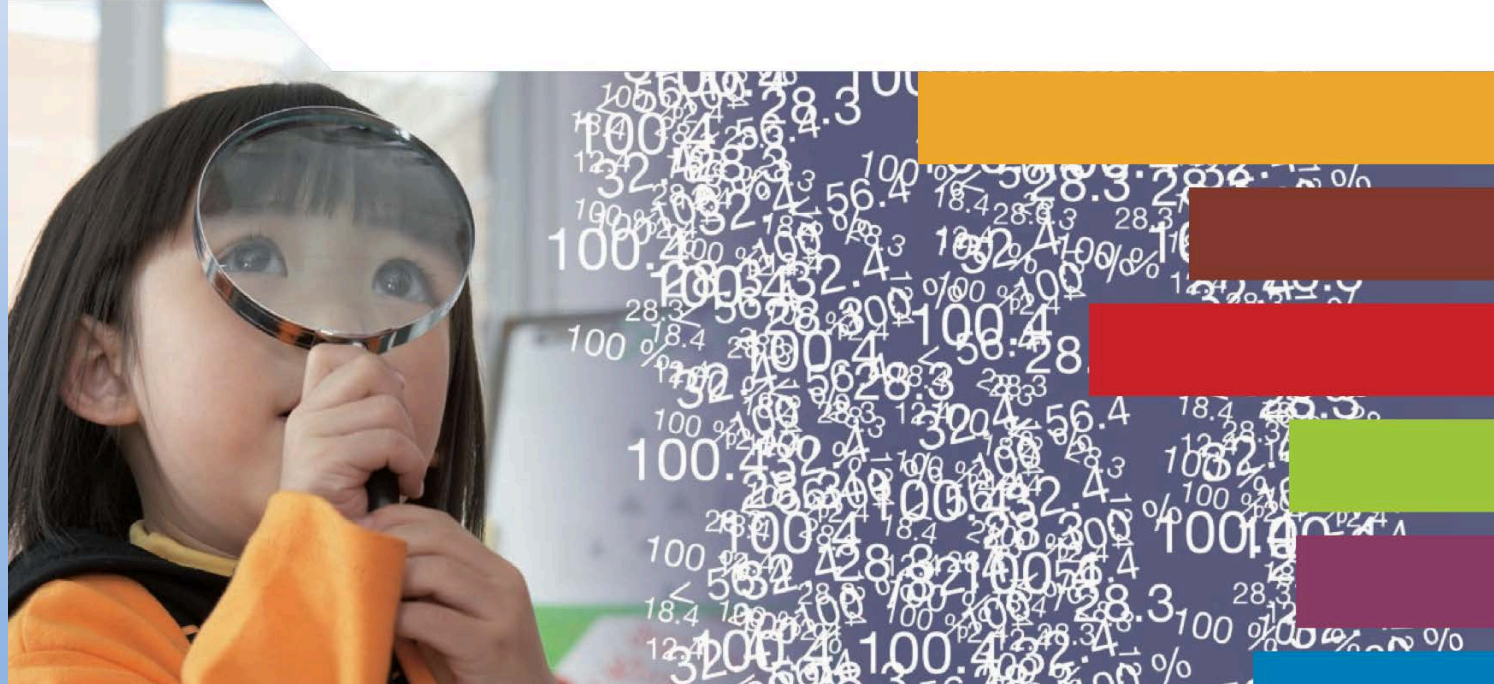

Most rewarding aspect of work

Education at a Glance 2014

HIGHLIGHTS

Education at a Glance 2014: Highlights

- Used the OECD's Education at a Glance 2014: Indicators to help write and assemble a more condensed, accessible version for the public
- Summarizing, writing, editing, re-wording
- Content organization
- Working under a tight deadline

Work with other interns

My work's impact on the organization

- Creation of promotional catalogues of OECD publications; increasing OECD readership around the world
- Helping to write and proofread publications; ensuring high quality work and meeting target release dates

Conferences

- Al Gore
- Thomas Piketty, French economist
- Conference on development in Latin America
(President of Peru, Vice President of Uruguay)
- José Manuel Barroso, President of the European Commission

How my experience impacted my academic choices and career plans

- Desire to work in international affairs
- Publishing: interesting lens to observe all of the directorates of the OECD
- Thoughts
 - Office job?
 - Developing countries?
 - French work atmosphere

Living independently, working at an international organization, meeting people from different cultures, immersing myself in French language & culture

