

Indian Institute of Cerebral Palsy (IICP)

ANGELA Y. KIM
CLASS OF 2017
SUMMER 2015 IN KOLKATA, INDIA

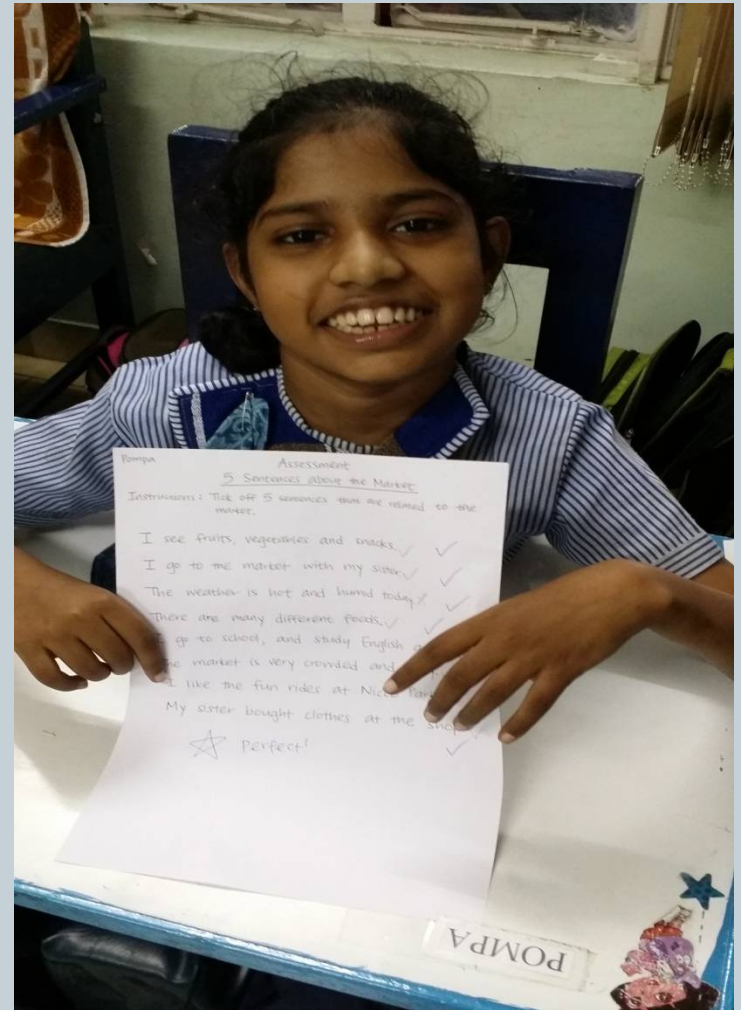

Communicative English Classes

- Role play conversations & beginner English phrases
 - Discussing food
 - When a visitor enters the classroom
 - How to talk about the past and future
 - How to talk to / about friends

Individual Teaching

- Taught English and math topics for two students
 - Writing 5 sentences about a topic
 - Uses of “and,” “but,” “or”
 - How to select items to purchase using 20 rupees
 - Billing sums

Poetry Communication Boards

My little mule 	We always have
A lot of fun 	Can trot and run
My mule eats grass 	I feed my mule
My mule eats hay 	Every day

On a blue hill, 	When the wind stops
You all stand still. 	White sheep, white sheep
You walk away slow. 	When the wind blows
White sheep, white sheep 	Where do you go?

Students at IICP

What I Learned

- Methods in teaching:
 - Adapting my teaching style to each student's needs
 - Fostering cooperation among students in the classroom
 - Trying different methods of assessment
- How to collaborate with multiple individuals to provide support for each student
- Being more open to cultural differences

Cultural Experience

